

Dr Duncan received his Ph.D. in Immunology from the University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas. He was a faculty member at UTSHCD and Dalhousie University. Over a period of 17 years, he served in senior scientific management positions at the National Institutes of Health. He currently serves as the Vice Provost for Research and Sponsored Programs at ETSU and President of the ETSU Research Foundation. Dr Duncan is responsible for overseeing the university's intellectual property, patents and copyrights. He is also responsible for all technology transfer activities associated with ETSU intellectual property and oversight of ETSU's business incubator, the Innovation Laboratory. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Innovation Laboratory and AccelNow, the Northeast Tennessee Regional Accelerator.