

Michele Joyner is an assistant professor in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics at East Tennessee State University. She received her PhD in Applied Mathematics with a concentration in Computational Mathematics from North Carolina State University. Prior to arriving at ETSU, Michele worked with NASA Langley Research Center, MIT Lincoln Laboratory, University of West Georgia and Kennesaw State University. Her main research interest is in mathematical modeling of physical systems and actively mentors students in this area of research.